How has the Noon award helped you?	As I wanted to be a synthetic chemist, Noon scholarship has helped me realise my dream to gain a professional degree from the University of Oxford. Now I have a chemical and research and development company in the areas of chemical and drug-medicinal development, which I would not have been able to do if I had not come to Oxford.
How have you contributed to Pakistan since the award?	Started a collaboration with HEC and Oxford University for Pakistani Scholars to visit the laboratories in University of Oxford.
